COMING OF PAY OF DEPUTIES IS OFF BY THE CHRIST IS NEAR

Under the auspices of the Interna tional Bible Students association, Dr. C. E. Heard of Vancouver addressed a congregation at the Tabernacle yes-terday on the subject, "Christ's Sec-end Coming, Why? How? When?" The speaker declared that the subect is an important one for all Christians to consider although he said the subject is more or less unpopular be-cause of the foolish theories sometimes advanced.

That the Saylor had a two-fold pur pose in coming to the earth was the special car at 9 a m. tomorrow with declaration of Dr. Heard. The first Mrs. H. M. The board of county commissioners this morning took a decided stand on the employing of deputies for the county assessor's office, a motion being unanimously carried that no per diem will be paid deputies ap-pointed by the assessor until the principal of the office assures the board that he will do his duty in the office and show to the board that it is necessary to have assistance.

The motion was made in response to a communication from Assessor Thomas Mathews, calling attention to the fact that it is incumbent upon him to prepare certain blotters during he month of October and that it cannot well be done without the aid of a deputy. The assessor adaid of a deputy. The assessor vised the board that if delay caused in getting out the blotters, the assessment rolls for the year, as required by law. The motion was by Commissioner Bybee and voted for by both Chairman Moroni Skeen and Commissioner Hunter. Chairman Skeen stated further that he felt that the matter should be careful and unflinching consideration and he thought it was time to learn whether the assessor should not be compelled to do the work in office the same as other county officials do. This sentiment was endorsed by other members of the board, stating that the board will be held responsible by the voters and taxpayers for the manner in which the affair of the county offices are conducted.

Deputies in all the offices are appointed by the principals of the various department and are confirmed by the board of commissioners, who fix their salaries at so much per diem. The salary of the chief deputy in the assessor's office is $3 a day and is in force during the pleasure of The board was advised by County Attorney David Jensen that the commissioners do not have the the term of the principal unless removed by the principal or some other person having the power. He did not think the board had the power to remove a deputy from the assessor's office but he concided that the board could refuse to pay the salary, which Angry Customer-Look at this suit setting the deputy out of the office. The commissioners agreed that the board would render all the assistance necessary for the handling of business in any county office, but they would have to be shown that assistance is needed before they

Piano Sale Extraordinary

The Western Music Company of Los Angeles, California, have been forced to close their doors. By arrangement with the manufacturers owning this stock of Pianos and Player Pianos we are enabled to offer intending purchasers

A Choice of Over 150 Pianos, New and Old

Unparalleled values in high-grade Pianos at about one-half their original value. The opportunity here offered, by our ability to handle this stock of the Western Music Company, is an unprecedented opportunity for intending pursers in this locality. No such inducements have ever before been offered in this State and positively cannot be again. The loss to the manufacturers, as a result of the Western Music Company's mixup, is your gain. We have been asked by the factories to close out this stock at the earliest possible moment, and we are going to do so. It is not a question of price, but quick disposition of the pianos is what the factories desire.

Another question of salary came p before the board and the expresion was that there should be some nderstanding with the judges of the district court as to the payment of er diem of court stenographers for day's work when only "ten or fifteen minutes time" is really given by the stenographer. Mr. Skeen said that that was another instance where public funds are being spent unfairly and without due returns for the fore a large audience at the Orpheum outlay. It was decided that this mat. last night when Eugene Walter's great ter should be taken up with the disview to having a definite and harmonious understand-

The board also registered a complaint against the use of the court nom and judges' chambers unnecessarily and to the expense of the Chairman Skeen said that uring the absence of Judge Harris for a period of about two months, his stenographer had used the chambers at night, incurring an expense to the county for light. MAN IS ROBBED AND THROWN FROM A TRAIN

O. H. Wallraven, an armature winder of New York, is in the Dee hospital suffering of concussion of the brain as a result of being pushed from the rear end of a Bamberger train near Pife, Saturday evening, after he had been robbed of $200 by his supposed friend Lying by the side of the tracks, the man was seen by David Donaldson about 7 o'clock as Donaldson rode out of Ogden. The conductor of the Bamberger car would not take in the man however, so Donaldson met the north bound train at Clearfield and had the car stopped. When it was too painful to move the injured man without a stretcher, the car went to Ogden and a special, fitted to handle and injured man was hurried out. The man remained unconscious at the Dee hospital until yesterday af-ternoon when he was to give his name and business and also repeat the story of being robbed which he had muttered in his delirium Saturday evening. He was unable to give internation that would help the sheriff and, after talking for a short time, went off into unconsciousness terestingly told in four acts.
